

INTERNSHIP Translation & Speaking Skills

Translation & Speaking Skills Internship at New York Habitat

New York Habitat is an internationally known real estate company that rents apartments and vacation homes in New York City, Paris, London, and the South of France.

The company benefits from wide exposure on major social networks, such as Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, and LinkedIn. The company's presence on various platforms is increasingly expanding, which is why we regularly need our content to be translated into the main languages spoken by our clients. Search Engine Optimization (SEO) plays an important role as well.

Therefore, New York Habitat is looking for motivated university students, with German as their native language, who are eager to jump in and gain meaningful experience in the field of translation and customer service. Interns will have the opportunity to see their work published on New York Habitat's website, blog, and social networks!

Tasks to be performed:

- In the translation department, interns will be responsible for translating texts of various kinds, such as apartment descriptions and customer reviews, from English into German. They will also have the opportunity to proofread their own and others' translations.
- In the product management department, interns will handle New York Habitat's phone line, providing our clients and property owners with appropriate customer service. They will learn how to process their inquiries and refer them to the appropriate agent.
